

ABSENCES/FINANCIAL AID POLICY

---

In an effort to avoid disbursing financial aid to students who are no longer attending college, the following policy/procedure has been put into place: A student who has ceased attending classes may not receive a financial aid disbursement unless the Federal Refund/Repayment calculation shows eligibility. If the student disputes that they have ceased attending, they may appeal utilizing the petition process found in the student handbook.